Estill to Build Turnpikes.

Contract for the re-surfacing and building one and one-half miles of the Richmond pike was let by the Fiscal Court, in session here the first of this week. Mills and Howell, of Frankfort, were the successful contractors, their bid of $6,500 being the lowest of half dozen received.

The work will start at the Irvine toll bridge and run towards Richmond for one and one-half miles. Some of the roadway will be re-surfaced, but the majority will have to be built. It will be a macadamized road and will be built under State supervision, thus assuring first class work.

The money used to improve this pike came from three sources. About $3,000 came from donations of citizens, a little more than $2,500 from the State, and the balance was furnished by the county.—Estill Tribune.

From the above it will be seen that Estill county will get one and one-half miles of turnpike for an outlay of but $1,000, or only $666.66 per mile. We are told the city of Richmond gave a subscription of $1,000 or $666.66 per mile to this road. Under the same plan Estill aims to improve all of its roads. The Fiscal Court has designated the Powell county road for improvement. Ten miles of this road can be used for the Clark county road. Winchester will put up as much per mile on the pike in Estill coming to their county line as did Richmond on Madison road, it is safe to say. So it can be easily seen that Estill has ingeniously perfected a plan to build good macadam roads for less than $700 per mile or but little more than what it should cost to build the best earth roads, the people who get direct benefit from the roads paying all over this to foot up the total cost.

Contrast this small cost to the county of Estill in building good turnpikes with the before unheard of high cost of dirt roads proposed to be built in this county. The total cost to Estill of $666.66 per mile for turnpikes looks much better to us than the proposed total cost of fully $2,500 per mile for dirt—mud—roads in Powell.

Estill, in building its roads, is co-operating with the people to get the best and greatest number of miles of road possible for the county's money to be spent. Powell has insolently and flatly refused to co-operate with the people in spending its $40,000 bond issue on roads, and from the exorbitant prices it proposes to pay for dirt roads many say it looks like Powell is trying to get the least number of miles of the lowest class road for that $40,000.

What Richmond did for Estill, Winchester offered to do for Powell in building a pike to the Clark line, and a committee was appointed by the Winchester Development Association to raise the money, and their action read to the Powell Fiscal Court which court wholly ignored Winchester's generous proposition.

The people in this end of the county, together with Clay City and a few friends in Estill, Clark

Our Mail Service Crippled

March 1st the present mail clerk on the morning west-bound train will be taken off and the pouch system used. This means that no mail from the up country can be received here—and ALL ALONG THE LINE—until late in the evening when the down train arrives, and when most all persons have gone home for the night, it being past seven o'clock when the mail is opened. This leaves us with but two mails a day worked by mail clerks on the train.

It seems to be only a matter of time until we will possibly have but one train, and well may we be glad if we are allowed that. The Times told the people a few years ago what they might expect when the L. & E. was allowed to be sold to the L. & N. We were then willing to help set the sale aside, but received little encouragement. The Attorney General at that time, James Garnett, absolutely refused to enforce the law as it was his duty to do, and after being importuned by citizens to do so.

There is nothing to do now but take our medicine.

Coming from Campton.

M. C. Vancleve, a prominent farmer of Wolfe, living near Campton, was here a day or so this week. He recently bought Mr. Townsend's farm, over toward Spout Spring, and intends moving to it next week if weather permits. Mr. Vancleve and his folks come well recommended, from a good country, and we feel sure they will prove a welcome addition to the farming, business and moral life of this, their new-home country.

Doing Good Business at Dayton

Friends coming from Dayton, Ohio, say that W. S. Rogers, who moved to that city several years ago, is engaged in the grocery business there and has an immense trade. Mr. Rogers' legion of friends here will be glad to learn of his success in his adopted home.

Corn Brings $6.25 a Barrel.

The Winchester Sun reports that the top price for corn sold in Clark county was reached Tuesday when at the sale of John Gray what corn he had brought $6.25 a barrel.

and Montgomery counties, raised and paid $2,990 for the Waltersville bridge, at no cost to the county, whatever; they built the Walter's Ferry bridge, the highest bridge in the county, being 31 feet above the water, at a cost of but $600 to the Fiscal Court; the Lulbegrud bridge cost the county but $364. And they are willing and ready to lend financial aid to the building of the roads promised the taxpayers before the bonds were voted. So anxious are the people for good roads that in one instance they have offered to build three miles of road for the State's part of the cost. Every proposition of help to get more and better roads has been turned down by the county.

Farmers Institute Re-called

There will be no Farmers' Institute at Winchester, Feb. 28,—March 1st and 2nd, as previously announced, the same having been recalled by the Department of Agriculture. This was made necessary owing to the influx of people pouring into Winchester on account of oil developments in Estill and Powell counties, and these persons occupying all the spare space at the hotels so that no rooms could be engaged in advance to accommodate the speakers, delegates and visitors who were expected to attend this meeting.

The good people of Clark and Winchester were anxious to open the doors of their homes to visitors, but the uncertainty of March weather made it not advisable to depend on country entertainment for those who desired to attend the meeting.

The 'Squire Unites Two.

'Squire Welch, who has an established record for tying nuptial knots in a pleasing and impressive manner, reports to us the two following marriages:

BERRYMAN-CARMICHAEL—Mr. Joe Berryman and Miss Rheta Carmichael were married at the bride's home on Ballard's Branch, Thursday, Feb. 22nd.

Attends Funeral at Richmond.

Mrs. Wm. Mountz, Sr., Wm. Shimmfessel, Taulbee Mountz, Joe Mountz, and Tom Mountz, attended the funeral of Mrs. J. W. Hisle at Richmond, Saturday.

Mrs. Hisle was 75 years old, and is survived by her husband and six children. Mrs. William Mountz, Sr., of this city, and Mrs. Lizzie Jane Wallace, of Irvine, are surviving sisters.

Epworth League Social

The young folks of the Epworth League met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Johnson Friday night and spent a most pleasant evening. Innocent games and amusements were indulged in. Candies and fruits were served. A most enjoyable time was had by all present.

Loses Pocket-book

John Cuddy, a Confederate veteran who recently was awarded a pension, had the misfortune to lose his pocket-book last Thursday, containing about $25. The pocket-book was lost in this city somewhere between the Company Store and Tom Mountz's place.

Attending College

Edmund Searles left several days ago for New Concord, Ohio, where he has entered the famous Muskingum College. Mr. Searles is a bright young man, and is gifted in his studies. He will make good.

Nations must go heavily armed against imminent foes, while if their citizens do the same thing, they are disfranchised.

Look Out for Him.

A number of local papers have been buncoed recently. A slick stranger tramps over the country professing to be taking subscriptions for the home paper. He sells it often at a reduction and gives the subscriber a receipt for a year. When the subscriber fails to get the paper, and goes onto the publisher, he finds that he has been duped. This clever swindler is liable to drop into Powell most any day posing as a representative of The Times, but he will not be. Pay him no money, and if you do, you lose, for we are now giving you warning. Send the price of the paper direct to this office. Stanton subscribers may pay Elder Paul Derthick who will then account to us.

They Say He's Stronger Now.

Jas. G. Rogers has returned from Dayton where he has been for some weeks on business. Mr. Rogers is looking well and healthy. He is home to stay and a little later will announce for Sheriff. Mr. Rogers was defeated for that office four years ago by less than a score of votes, and his friends say he is that much and more votes stronger now than then, and that he will win this time.

National Pay-up Week

This week, Feb. 19 to 24, has been generally designated all over the country as "Pay up Week" and is being religiously observed in some sections, but not in Powell county. It is a good move and it should be universally observed. As we failed to catch on in time this week to pay up, we can just observe Pay-up Week next week. So call at the Times office next week and get what we owe you.

That Inauguration

Had you thought that on Monday, March 5th, the inauguration of President Wilson is due to take place if it is not forgotten in Washington. All that you can read about at the capital now seems to be war, and it would seem that insignificant things like Presidential inaugurations may be overlooked this time.

Laymen's Meeting at Lexington

The Laymen's Missionary Convention, an organization of church laymen of the country, is in session at Lexington this week. Three thousand delegates are expected to attend this meeting, and Lexington is said to be entertaining the Brethren in excellent style.

Ships Another Carload.

Engaged in Meeting

Elders J. T. Turpin and W. A. Smethers are engaged this week in a protracted meeting at Macedonia church, in Montgomery county. They will hold a meeting next week at Powell's Valley.

A friend of ours over in Estill county, who has acquired some wealth from oil resources, has written the Times Editor relative to acquiring some of the Powell county bonds that are supposed to exist. Of course we can't encourage the purchase of the Powell county bonds to our friends when we do not think them valid, and now have now a suit in court to test their validity. We have no objection to the bonds, but as this is all the road money the county can hope to get in many future years, and as the powers that be have designed to spend this money in the improvement of dirt roads at a price approximating a cost of about $2,500 per mile, and as these same powers refuse to co-operate with citizens who are anxious to substantially increase the amount of money we have so we could get some roads, we think it best to set aside the bonds at this time, and save the funds until an opportunity is had to build these same roads for about $600 per mile, and we are confident it can be done, and pick a time when we have officers who see it wise to join in with the people who are so anxious to put in money and get more roads. The people supported that bond issue with a thorough and distinct understanding, and when this understanding is ruthlessly cast aside to the detriment of the roads, we feel it is high time some citizen take the matter in hand, and that is just what we have done, and we are determined to see that the only money the county can hope to have is properly invested.

That is just how good a good roads man we are. We believe fully ninety per cent of the taxpayers of the county are for annulling the bonds and starting anew, and at a more opportune time to build roads than the present seems to be. At least that is what our best and most determined efforts shall be, and is directed to do. Twenty-two hundred dollars per mile for construction work only, for dirt—mud—roads sounds too high for common people.

Some of the boys seem to be striking it right in the Legislature. Representative Howard, of Woodford county, introduced a bill Monday which provides an annual license tax of 2 cents on each ton of coal mined, 2 cents a barrel on each barrel of crude oil pumped or produced, and 1 cent on each 10,000 cubic feet of natural gas produced. Representative Spurrier goes one better by introducing a bill providing an annual license tax of 5 cents on on each barrel of crude oil produced, a license tax of 5 cents on every ton of coal mined, a license tax of ten cents on every proof gallon of distilled spirits and a license tax of 10 cents on every quarter-barrel, 20 cents on every half-barrel, and 30 cents on every barrel, of malt liquor manufactured in the State.

If there were any showing of getting such measures as these through the Legislature we would, in fact, be very jubilant; but Stanley certainly knew what he was about before he called the Legislature together, and Stanley wants no such legislation as this, and it is therefore safe to say there will be no such a good tax law passed as these would be. We are indeed proud to see some of our Representatives willing to fight for their constituents instead of the unfair capitalists of the State.

Senators and Representatives are receiving floods of letters and telegrams from every section of the country congratulating them for passing the immigration bill over the head of President Wilson, who had twice vetoed it on account of its prohibiting foreigners from coming over here unless they could read and write either the English language or their own language.

President Wilson said that "literacy" was not a test of character, and it is not in many cases but it is a test of usefulness and desirability, and those who came over here by the millions before the war stopped them, have not proven to be either desirable or useful citizens, and they will not till the soil but hover around the bright lights of the big cities and push banana carts or turn a hand-organ for a living. The larger States spend over 25 million dollars each year on insane asylums and poor-houses in which to care for these ignorant immigrants. Let some other country act as their dumping-ground for we have had enough of it.

In an adjoining county a certain County Judge had been paying $16 per year for painting the jail roof, and same fellow got the job each year, of course. The voters took a notion and changed judges one term. At the proper time the jail painter approached the new county judge and inquired if it were not time to paint the jail roof. The new judge said yes, and asked the cost. The painter intelligently said $16. The new judge said that was too much, but that he would give him $3.50 to do a good job as he had been doing, and that he would give no more. The jail painter thought strange that the judge would be so close with money that did not come out of his own pocket. The judge took a different view of it and the painter finally took the job at $3.50 and made good money.

It paid that county one time, at least, to change judges. The last judge didn't know graft; the former judge didn't know anything else, it would seem.

Had you noticed that there are no counties in the State that are now trying to vote road bonds? There's a reason. Counties that didn't vote bonds are going ahead with road building, notably two adjoining counties, Estill and Menefee, without an increase of tax, while counties, or many of them, that voted bonds, are collecting tax only, while others have set aside their bonds to keep graft scandals from their county seats, and to enable them to economically build roads sure enough.

As Gov. Stanley is going to force the tax law on the farmers of the State, it seems, they may well congratulate themselves on having the Farm Loan Bank system, which will enable them to mortgage their farms in time to pay next year's tax on their real estate. The Government provides and Stanley divides for the farmers.

Business Man Praises Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

Successful Merchant After Investigation Found a Remedy That Restored His Health.

"This is Thanksgiving day in the state of Pennsylvania, and I want to devote a part of it in writing a letter to you. On the 25th day of November, 1910, I was stricken with heart trouble. My family physician called it Angina Pectoris. I had from one to five attacks in 24 hours, in the latter part of December, 1910. I wrote to the Miles Medical Co., for information concerning my case, and in reply I received a very kind and instructive letter, which I handed to my family doctor, and he told me to use your Remedies in connection with the medicine he gave me, so I did. I used five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and seven bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I was confined to the house for about four months. The action of my heart is now, and has been normal for the last six months. I can truly recommend Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Remedy to do what they are intended for, if used according to directions. I thank you kindly for your advice in answer to my monthly reports. I am now sixty-seven years of age, have been in the mercantile business for thirty-five years and lived retired for the last thirteen years."

The Creamery Business

The shipping of cream to the creameries and butter factories in the large cities has become so popular and profitable, and so much of it is now being shipped from the Bluegrass section, that some of the creameries are establishing branch stations for the purpose of buying, testing and shipping the cream to the cities. Mt. Sterling has just gotten one of these branch stations.

It is just in the last few months that some Powell county farmers have begun to ship their cream, and those who have done so have found it very profitable and satisfactory. It is a great deal less trouble to separate the milk and put the cream away in a can until it is full, when it can be shipped to the market where it will bring one-third more than could be realized for the butter in the the cream after being churned, worked out and sold.

And then it brings so much more. Butter fat in cream sold at Louisville last week for 43 cents per pound. As a matter for comparison, Asa Todd shipped from this city a five gallon can of cream to Cincinnati last week and received for it $7.57. Had this cream been churned at home and the butter sold here, Mr. Todd, it is safe to say, would have realized not much more than half so much out of his cream. And then the market can never be glutted winter or summer. You can sell at all seasons of the year all the cream you have at far more on the average than you can get on the local market for the butter. Thus we hope to see more of our farmers shipping cream this summer.

Mt. Sterling Court.

Monday began with rain which continued until about nine o'clock but in spite of the weather conditions a splendid crowd attended the court day sales in this city.

About 1,500 cattle on the market of medium quality. Trade was fair and prices high. Several bunches of cattle selling as high as 8 1/2 cents. Most of the cattle were sold at so much per head. The best sales of 800 pound steers was at $7.75; yearlings at 8 to 8 1/2 cents; heifers at 6 1/2 to 7 cents for fat ones; cows at 5 1/2 to 6 1/2; canners at 5 cents; bulls, good ones at 7 cents. Good crowd at the pens, while we had no buyers out of State. All Central Kentucky had buyers with a few from as far as Shelby county.

About 150 mules on the market. Trade was brisk for good mules. Small mules were slow. Greenwade & Co. sold a pair of nice mare mules to Caywood & McClintock, of Paris, at $460. This firm sold 14 mules at from $160 to $250; McClintock & Meyers of Millersburg, bought mules at from $175 to $250. All the good mules were sold but quite a number of small mules were left over.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Can't You Teach One?

Kentucky has three years in which to remove her illiteracy if the slogan—"No illiteracy in Kentucky in 1920"—is realized. If other counties worked like Clay and Leslie and Cumberland, for instance, there would be no illiteracy in the State in 1918. In these three counties 1,967 persons learned to read and write in 1916. In a number of counties as many as one hundred were taught and in some fifty men and women learned to read and write. During this winter, many citizens are teaching. Some editors are teaching and some doctors are teaching, some bankers, some lawyers and judges, some women and even children are teaching one to read and write. A woman in Versailles has taught seven in her home. A little girl in Winchester has taught four colored illiterates. The President of the Illiteracy Commission, Mrs. Stewart, while directing the State-wide campaign with its heavy duties, has taught one, herself, since November. The Federation of Women's Clubs plans to teach ten thousand this winter and spring by each teaching one.

This is Kentucky's great work. It originated in Kentucky and the eradication of illiteracy will be to the lasting glory of Kentucky. But, better than this it opens up to men and women the world of books. Have you taught one yet in Kentucky's campaign against illiteracy?

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

Let's Have a Real One!

The Federal Trade Commission is about to start an investigation of the rise in food prices. It will ask the President approve an appropriation of $400,000 for that purpose. It proposes to cover every side of the food situation.

Good! Let us hope at last we are going to have a real investigation. The country has confidence in the Federal Trade Commission. Now let's have the facts. Let's go to the bottom—to the fundamentals—and really learn all that can be learned about the subject.

The problem is legal and economic. The question of whether there are combinations in restraint of trade must be decided. That has heretofore attracted the main attention. Now it's time to go more into the economic part—and go into it thoroughly. Are the people being compelled to pay too much for what they buy? Nobody can answer that until he can say with reasonable approximation what it costs to produce those things.

In some fields the trade commission will find plenty of data. The packers, for instance, can tell it exactly what it costs them to turn out their products. Government attention has encouraged accurate cost accounting in their case. But these fields are limited. In the biggest fields of all, the work will have to be done from the ground up. There isn't a farmer in Illinois who knows what it costs him to put his product on the market to-day. There isn't one manufacturer in ten who has an accurate idea of what it costs him to run his business.

Let the trade commission start literally "from the ground up." Let it start with the farmer and find what production of everything, from eggs to wheat and cattle, means in terms of money and labor expenditure. He doesn't know, and nobody else knows. Then let it follow the product to consumption. Many people assume high prices don't start until they reach some large organization. From the economic standpoint they are just as liable to start at the beginning as anywhere else. Prices cannot be permanently below the cost of production under any circumstances.

The country is in the mood for an investigation that will be long and deep and thorough. It is tired of these continued flurries about high prices that get nothing except possibly a politician into Congress or some other job, or into the newspapers. It has had its fill of half-baked remedies that spring from attention to only one half of the great problem. Let's have an investigation that will enable the country to see it steadily and see it whole. It would be cheap at $400,000 or $4,000,000.—Chicago Herald.

If the Commission should do its duty—as most of them fail to do—it would find that the farmer is now too poorly paid for his products, while the middleman gets the grab end of it. For example: The farmer sows his wheat, cuts it, threshes it, and hauls it to market, where he usually gets about two cents a pound for it. The miller grinds it up with one-tenth the time and labor the farmer gives to growing the wheat. But the farmer, in buying his wheat back in flour and feed finds that the cheapest feed put out will cost him 2 cents per pound, while the flour will cost him more than 5 cents per pound.

And thus it is with nearly every other article the farmer produces. The farmer gets scant pay for raising while the middleman gets the same or more for distributing it. It is easy to see where the trouble is, but hard to remedy.

CONSTIPATION MAKES YOU DULL

That draggy, listless, oppressed feeling generally results from constipation. The intestines are clogged and the blood becomes poisoned. Relieve this condition at once with Dr. King's New Life Pills; this gentle, non-gripping laxative is quickly effective. A dose at bedtime will make you feel brighter in the morning. Get a bottle today at your Druggist, 25c. adv

Landowners Not Organized.

The landowners of the state are not organized; they have no high-salaried lobbyists to see that they are protected; they have no corruption fund from which to make contributions to political campaigns; and, as a result, are not likely to get much the best of it under any tax law, as the Kentucky Tax League and similar associations representing "the interests", are endeavoring to make the farmers believe. . . . Governor Stanley promised to rid the Capitol of useless officers, which would save the taxpayers thousands of dollars annually. He has repeatedly been asked to make good this solemn pledge to the people, but has not yet done so. Doubtless he thinks as he said he did about the Webb-Kenyon bill, that to take jobs from the faithful would be "unconstitutional"—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Envelops Up, Too

Not only has the local papers of the entire country been forced to raise their price on account of the exorbitant prices charged for white paper, but the crisis has also hit the Government, and it has accordingly advanced the price of stamped envelopes from 28 cents to 66 cents on the thousand, according to grade. This increase is to become effective at once and affects all sizes and qualities of envelopes.

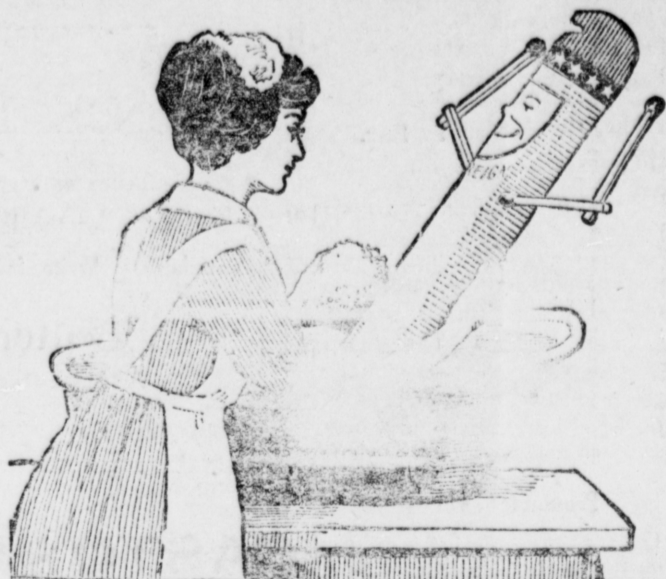

Cold Settled In His Back

"Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief."—Ed Velton, Rogers, Nebr.

Ed Velton, of Rogers, Neb., writes: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills for backache, the result of catching cold which settled in my back. Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief and I can cheerfully recommend them."

The reason Foley Kidney Pills act so satisfactorily is because they neutralize and dissolve the poisonous waste matter that remains in the blood because the kidneys do not do their work properly in filtering and casting out from the system uric acid and other poisons.

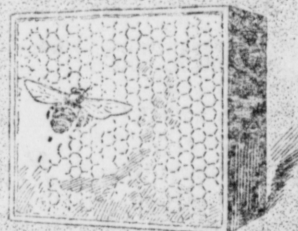

Relief usually follows in a few days and such symptoms as pain in the sides or back, stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatism, too frequent action of the bladder at night, and other painful and annoying ailments disappear. Foley Kidney Pills contain no harmful ingredients. They are safe as well as quick acting.

THANKS TANLAC FOR CHANGE

"I used to swell up like a frog after eating," said James Wayson, wharf-master at Greenup, Ky., "but that was before I started taking Tanlac. That bloated feeling took all the life out of me and made me tired and droopy. I didn't seem to have a bit of ambition. But it's different with me now. I sure feel fine."

"Before I took Tanlac I was eating practically nothing—just a little soup and milk now and then—my stomach wouldn't stand anything stronger. After eating—no matter what or how little—I belched and bloated. I was nervous and dizzy all the time."

"I dreaded for night to come. I couldn't sleep. I tossed about all night and woke up in the morning all tired out. I could barely stand on my feet during the day. I got discouraged. I didn't know what to do."

"A friend told me to try Tanlac. I hesitated at first, because I had tried many things and taken many tips from friends. But I got Tanlac on this friend's advice and I thank God that I did. It did the work."

"Today I am in fine health. I sleep fine and am not nervous a bit. I have a big appetite. So, you see, it's no wonder that I urge others who suffered as I did to get Tanlac right off. If you are not feeling right get Tanlac today. Delay in health matters is dangerous."

That's Right

Farmers all over our State are holding mass meetings and condemning the new tax laws while the people in the smaller cities are also opposed to them. It is pretty hard to "slip one over" on the public, but if the big papers had been depended upon by the common people the said common people would probably have been "in bad." It was the great number of so-called "country papers" that took the matter up.—Winchester Democrat.

Coughing at Night

is a hardship for elderly people as well as children. Foley's Honey and Tar stops it. Also prevents croup. Sold everywhere.

They Want Mac To Run.

J. W. McIntosh, of the lower end of county, was here a short time yesterday. The good people of his portion of the county are very anxious that Mr. McIntosh make the race for Magistrate from the Virden-Hardwick's Creek district. Bill would make a good officer, and should he be induced to run he would be a very hard man to beat.

Profitable Drilling

Over in the Station Camp district last week, a well was drilled in less than 24 hours that is claimed to produce 500 barrels of oil daily. One hour's pumping, it is claimed, will cover all cost of the well. And then it nearly kills an operator to pay more than one-eighth of the production of the lease.
